

Elizabeth Meadows

My name is Elizabeth Meadows and I am the Director of Nousoma Holistic Health Centre. My background is in Human Resources and although I am now a full time health practitioner, for 14 years I headed the Human Resources department for a large international software company. I know precisely the pressure busy people are under, the almost impossible task of balancing the needs of work and family. To live, and more importantly, to survive a high pressured, high geared lifestyle, we need to take care of ourselves, build resilience and ensure we keep balanced.

I have been studying and practicing Jin Shin Jyutsu since 2001 and opened my full time practice at the beginning of 2006. I am also a certified mentor and trained in colour reflexology.

Clinics are in Kohimarama and Herne Bay, Auckland.
